

Family Learning at Thomas Fairchild Community School Summer term 2017

Family pottery is a 5 week course for parents and children to learn and create something using pottery techniques with a professional tutor and potter called Tunde.

A total of 10 families participated and it was mainly offered to Year 6 children and their parents/carers as it would be their last term working together in a primary school environment.

